Slimy, scary, sneaky? We will separate fact from fiction in this investigation of fascinating animals that are often misunderstood.

JUNE 18- AUGUST 10

Get a Clue@ Your Library Summer Reading Game

Children preschool through 6th grade can sign up at Santore Branch and start a reading folder. They earn stickers by reading Library books, by using Library materials, or by participating in Library activities. Prizes are awarded each week to every child who has earned one or more stickers.

Get a Clue @ Your Library Teen Summer Reading

Any teen going into grades 7th – 12th can fill out a raffle entry form each time they read a book or magazine, listen to an audio book, read to a younger child, watch a library DVD, or surf the web at Santore Branch. The more teens read the better their chances of winning prizes. Each branch will hold three prize raffles for teens. In addition to the raffles, all teens will receive a prize for their participation this summer. Teens can also sign up for Summer Reading and share book reviews online through the Library's website, www.library.phila.gov.

EVERY TUESDAY Pre School Story Hour

Join Children's Librarian John for an hour of stories for the toddler set every Tuesday. Call John for details, 215-686-1766.

LEAP After School Program

A drop in program to assist students from grades 1-12. LEAP provides homework help, presents multicultural enrichment programs and assists children and teens in developing library and computer skills, and plans weekly activities. Call 215-686-1766 for more information.
